

BARKAART

A warm welcome at Brasserie Appelmans & Absinthbar!

As your head bartender, I proudly present the bar, where my team and I are at your service for many years now. As with a great cocktail, the key to success is balance. 16 years and counting... A wonderful achievement, for any restaurant & Bar in the city center, of course... But make no mistake about it: a performance like that isn't a given.

Each day, there's a whole team working together, with the goal of creating inspiring food, fantastic cocktails and a service that makes you smile. It's the team spirit, that we find the true story behind our success! Thank you for your trust during all these years, and hopefully we'll see you again soon, and time and time again.

ABSINTHE

Jade Esprit Edouard (FR – 72°) 14,00

This is a fabulously faithful reproduction of the famous Edouard Pernod 72° absinthe that was highly popular during the Belle Époque. It stays absolutely true to the original, from its delicate tint, to its refined texture and delightfully aromatic finish. Taste: the anise, wormwood and fennel mix perfectly with a noticeable peppery coriander. Complex and spicy but the green anise is again a winner here.

Grön Opal (SE – 72°) 15,00

The Grön Opal is characterized by its intense and fruity Swedish wormwood. The secret of this absinthe's complex and delicious taste lies in the distillers' choice to use the highest-quality herbs: wild-growing grand wormwood, lemon balm, hyssop and roman wormwood from their own garden. Taste: it is fresh, floral, powerful, seducing in every aspect and its irresistible taste lingers on your palate forever.

Bairnsfather Bitter (CZ – 55°) 7,50

This typical Czech absinthe contains 35 mg/l thujone by maceration of the wormwood in alcohol. Taste: a pleasant sweet anise flavor that quickly surrenders to a dominantly bitter aftertaste. An absinthe for the bitter lovers.

Libertine Intense (FR – 72°) 9,00

This is a heavier version of the original Libertine 55 °. Taste: liquorice and anise, slightly bitter then sweet, finished by hints of almonds. A good absinthe for starters.

Libertine Amer (FR – 68°) 9,00

This absinthe has less alcohol content and more bitterness than the 'Intense'. Taste: green anise with hints of fennel and wormwood, followed by a soft yet bitter aftertaste.

Abisinthe Amer (FR - 72°) 10,00

This absinthe from the French municipality Fougerolles has been manufactured by Lemerancier distillery since 1811. Taste: sweet anise with a pleasant bitterness and a light sensation of liquorice. This absinthe is completely balanced and not overpowering.

Un Emile (FR – 68°)	10,00
Un Emile was founded in 1890 in Pontarlier, France, by Emile Pernot. Taste: a mixture of wormwood and green anise. This is a good introduction for the new absinthe taster.
François Guy (FR – 45°)	10,00
The Guy distillery was founded in 1890 by Armand Guy and is produced in the pure traditional way. Taste: perfumed with anise and a discreet freshness of herbs in the background. For both beginners and advanced absinthe lovers.
Fougerolles Verte (FR – 72°)	12,00
Although the recipe has not changed, it is now known as Enigma Verte. Taste: anise, star anise and floral fennel flavor with hints of green tea. A little sharp and dry, with pleasant sensations from nose to the aftertaste.
Fougerolles Blanche (FR – 74°)	13,00
This is a very unusual transparent absinthe made with brandy from grapes and unusual plants such as genepi. Taste: fennel with hints of genepi, angelica and wormwood. The eau-de-vie accentuates the presence of grapes and red berries. This is a very successful absinthe.
Roquette (FR – 75°)	13,00
Roquette 1797 is brought back to life from an unpublished, handwritten manuscript dating from the eighteenth century. Taste: soft wormwood spiciness with hints of lemon balm and a strong bitterness.
King of Spirits (CZ - 70°)	16,00
This non-traditional Czech absinthe is bottled with real herbs and spices in the bottle. This continuous process of maceration gives it a very bitter taste. Taste: strong in alcohol and wormwood. Bitter, bitter and more bitter!!! Best drunk the “Bohemian” way with caramelized sugar!
Absinthe Liqueur François Guy (FR - 25°)	7,00
This exquisite drink will make you discover the extraordinary taste of the absinthe plant in a sweet liqueur form at 25% vol.
