WE ARE PROUD TO PRESENT AN UNIQUE COLLABORATION

Piper-Heidsieck Essentiel Brut by Taste!

This unique champagne is a profound collaboration between Emilien Boutillat, Chef de Cave of Piper-Heidsieck, and Kasper Stuart from Taste! Restaurant & Bar Group. It's a perfectly festive aperitif champagne for any celebration, but also especially made to pair with the elegant dishes of Brasserie Appelmans & Absinthbar.

This champagne is from the harvest of 2014 and has ripened in the cellars for five years before it was disgorged in 2020. It is a blend of 47% Pinot Noir, 31% Meunier and 22% Chardonnay grapes and 18% of this champagne are the finest reserve wines.

It boasts a precise, well-rounded and elegant profile. Its precision and remarkable balance make it an ideal companion for gastronomy. The nose initially delivers notes of white peach, brioche, grapefruit and candied quince, developing towards aromas of toasted almonds. The palate is creamy and fresh. The length is remarkable and the finish on mineral notes pairs perfectly with refined cuisine. Extra brut at 6 gr/l.

St Félicien Tentation

Smooth cheese made from pasteurized cow's milk and produced in a traditional manner by filling the casting moulds with a ladle. Enriched with cream which leads to a buttery structure. A creamy core and soft flavour. Sometimes even a bit moist and runny. A white, floury crust. Made by the cheese refinery l'Etoile Du Vercors in the Rhône region.

Postel Fenugreek

Real abbey cheese from the Norbertine monks, made within the walls of Postel's abbey in the Antwerp Campine. Aside from the soft creamy taste, the fenugreek seeds offer this cheese its modest nutty flavour.

Old Remeker

Hard cheese made from raw cow's milk. Originating from Lunteren in the province of Gelderland, in the Netherlands. This farmer's cheese has biological raw milk from the Jersey breed as its base ingredient. What's unique here, is its natural crust, that is rubbed in with Ghee, a butter extract, during the ripening process. This very authentic dairy product reminds us of Cantal and has developed a delightful creaminess.

XO

This cheese is made in the Gouda region in the Netherlands but continues to ripen for 40 months in Northern-Antwerp. It is made from pasteurized cow's milk. Because of this uncommonly long ripening process, it develops ripening crystals leading to a good bite. Salty flavours with a nutty aftertaste.

ABSINTHE

Jade Esprit Edouard (FR – 72°)

14,00

This is a fabulously faithful reproduction of the famous Edouard Pernod 72° absinthe that was highly popular during the Belle Époque. It stays absolutely true to the original, from its delicate tint, to its refined texture and delightfully aromatic finish.

Taste: the anise, wormwood and fennel mix perfectly with a noticeable peppery coriander. Complex and spicy but the green anise is again a winner here.

Bairnsfather Bitter (CZ – 55°)

7,50

This typical Czech absinthe contains 35 mg/l thujone by maceration of the wormwood in alcohol.

Taste: a pleasant sweet anise flavor that quickly surrenders to a dominantly bitter aftertaste. An absinthe for the bitter lovers.

Libertine Amer (FR – 68°)

9,00

This absinthe has less alcohol content and more bitterness than the 'Intense'.

Taste: green anise with hints of fennel and wormwood, followed by a soft yet bitter aftertaste.

Abisinthe Amer (FR – 72°)

10,00

This absinthe from the French municipality Fougerolles has been manufactured by Lemerancier distillery since 1811.

*Taste: sweet anise with a pleasant bitterness and a light sensation of liquorice.
This absinthe is completely balanced and not overpowering.*

Un Emile (FR – 68°)

10,00

Un Emile was founded in 1890 in Pontarlier, France, by Emile Pernot.

*Taste: a mixture of wormwood and green anise.
This is a good introduction for the new absinthe taster.*

Fougerolles Verte (FR – 72°)

12,00

Although the recipe has not changed, it is now known as Enigma Verte.

*Taste: anise, star anise and floral fennel flavor with hints of green tea.
A little sharp and dry, with pleasant sensations from nose to the aftertaste.*

Fougerolles Blanche (FR – 74°) This is a very unusual transparent absinthe made with brandy from grapes and unusual plants such as genepi. Taste: fennel with hints of genepi, angelica and wormwood. The eau-de-vie accentuates the presence of grapes and red berries. This is a very successful absinthe.	13,00
Roquette (FR – 75°) Roquette 1797 is brought back to life from an unpublished, handwritten manuscript dating from the eighteenth century. Taste: soft wormwood spiciness with hints of lemon balm and a strong bitterness.	13,00
L'Entete (FR – 62°) Superbly clean with great anise character, fennel and faint floral notes. Bitter wormwood shines with water. Taste: bitter and floral.	13,00
King of Spirits (CZ – 70°) This non-traditional Czech absinthe is bottled with real herbs and spices in the bottle. This continuous process of maceration gives it a very bitter taste. Taste: strong in alcohol and wormwood. Bitter, bitter and more bitter!!! Best drunk the "Bohemian" way with caramelized sugar!	16,00

Absinthe Liqueur François Guy (FR – 25°)

7,00

Taste: strong and minty.

Mansinthe (CH – 66.6°)

13,00

The absinthe of Marilyn Manson is a natural absinthe that is distilled from vermouth, aniseed, fennel, and other fine herbs. Mansinthe was awarded a gold medal at the San Francisco World Spirits Competition 2008.

Taste: fennel and anise.

Pernod (FR – 68°)

11,00

The original recipe of the 'absinthe elixir' is attributed to Dr. Pierre Ordinaire, who developed it in 1792. However, for the new edition of the Pernod absinthe, they have refined the recipe and the method of production to meet the tastes of the modern palate. As a result, Pernod Absinthe certainly impresses with its bitterness, which – according to the original recipe – is because of the use of exquisite vermouth plants.

Taste: bitter.

Jacques Senaux Green (ES – 70°)

8,00

A Spanish absinthe made with grand wormwood. This one has a vivid green hue, and contains small amounts of thujone, the chemical which was originally blamed for the supposed psychedelic effects of this spirit

Taste: subtly bitter and goes perfectly against a background of distilled liquorice, with aniseed notes to finish.

Sublime Absente (FR – 89°)

11,00

An extremely powerful absinthe from French spirits experts Distilleries et Domaines de Provence. This spirit has been made to a traditional recipe, using mugwort, star anise, aniseed, balm, mint and wormwood (artemisia absinthium). Distilleries de Provence use less sugar in their absinthe than other producers, ensuring a more powerful herbal flavour.

Taste: strong and herbal.

This unique champagne is a profound collaboration between Emilien Boutillat, Chef de Cave of Piper-Heidsieck, and Kasper Stuart from Taste! Restaurant & Bar Group. It's a perfectly festive aperitif champagne for any celebration, but also especially made to pair with the elegant dishes of Brasserie Appelmans & Absinthbar.
